About the Speakers:

Marylee Abrams and Tiffany Schmidt are law partners in the firm Abrams & Schmidt LLC. They opened their law firm in 2008 with the primary focus being the representation of employers/management in the areas of labor and employment law. They represent both public and private sector employers throughout the State of Minnesota.

About the Presentation:

This presentation will outline the National Labor Relations Act and the National Labor Relations Board. You will learn about who the NLRA applies to, the new employee rights posting requirement, and updates on recent litigation regarding employee use of social media. Any business, regardless of size, who has employees should attend this seminar.
